Prior violent attacks by defendant

The State of Rhode Island has been on actual, as well as constructive, notice at least since 1903 (Exhibit 3) that the Catholic Church requires cannabis balsam in the confection of our Sacraments and the practice of our religion.

BUT

on THREE recent occasions, Catholic clergy were attacked physically by police, services disrupted, and religious practices and rites interrupted.

In April 2016 I was ATTACKED physically by two "off duty police" who said on the record that they were triggered by the smell of burning cannabis. Video evidence proves that I was not the source of the smell and Bishop Thomas J Tobin wrote in his column that the burning incense produces a distinctive smell. * Exhibit 4 (over)

2 of 4) On two other occasions in 2016, two clergy of the church were physically attacked, church property stolen or destroyed because the smell and sight of this material essential to the practice of our religion triggered law enforcement activity.

* These events inflicted emotional distress on my minor child who was present at one

In October 2018, again, clergy of our Church were physically attacked, arrested and sacred materials taken by the state.

Similar attacks have taken place in other churches (Exhibit 9)

The Annual Diocesan Chrism Mass is going to be held on April 15, 2019 at 30 Fenner St, Providence, RI.

Case # KC-2019-0411

Clear and Present Danger

At Exodus 30:23 ~~and~~ must include Cannabis Balsam or hashish (KNH BSM in Hebrew) and so if the State contives to act towards the Catholic Church the way they have at least since 2016, it is significantly likely that armed police might interrupt the Mass and arrest participants including the Bishops and Priests for "Manufacturing and distributing a controlled substance."

Standing My minor child is participating in this Mass as an invited musician And I am participating as a communicant.

Request Please grant a restraining order to enjoin the High intensity Drug Trafficking Task force, or any other law enforcement from disrupting The service in any way
